

INDEXES TO THE YIDDISH WORKS OF SHOLEM ALEICHEM

and their ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS

Louis Fridhandler

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Leonard Prager, Haifa, Israel, and Robert Goldenberg, Fort Erie, Ont., Canada have contributed extremely valuable material and ideas toward this set of indexes. While we strove to make this complete and accurate, amendments will be made as necessary.

INTRODUCTION

Weinreich's(1) index to accessible English translations of Sholem Aleichem was a landmark contribution. New translations called for Miller's(2) 1977 update, and these indexes offer a further update. The bilingual reader needs indexes not only to the original Yiddish of pieces in translation, but also to works not yet translated.

The indexes given here, therefore, offer useful features, e.g.:

- 1) English and Yiddish titles are in alphabetical order. Obeying custom, the definite or indefinite article is placed last. After the alphabetical arrangement, the Yiddish titles are again listed chronologically.
- 2) All Yiddish titles found are listed whether or not there is an English translation.
- 3) They locate the Yiddish originals in various versions, and in sources other than the FOLKSFOND OYSGABE (Peoples Edition, 1917-1923), the FORVERTs 1942 edition and DOS ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM BUKh (1926, 1958).
- 4) Even a cursory scan of the chronological list reveals eras of high productivity contrasted with those of rather low productivity. The correlation with personal biographical details and socioeconomic history is of interest.

The bilingual reader will benefit most, but those who read no Yiddish should find the data of interest from various other viewpoints: historical, literary, bibliographical or biographical.

SOURCES OF YIDDISH TITLES

In addition to the FOLKSFOND OYSGABE (AV-F), ALE VERK, FORVERTs OYSGABE, 1942 (AV'42), and DOS ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM BUKh (DSAB), Yiddish sources consulted include:

- 1) The three volumes of selected pieces published by the I.L. Peretz Publishing House, Tel-Aviv:
FELYETONEN (FEL), 1976.
MENAKhEM-MENDL's 1913 letters (MM'13), 1976;
OYF VOS BADARFN YIDN A LAND? (OVBYL), 1978;
- 2) The 1959 collection from Moscow, ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM: OYSGEVEYLTE VERK (SAOV), containing valuable notes and explanations in Yiddish, published by MELUKhE FARLAG.
- 3) Two volumes of the series from Argentina, MUSTERVERK FUN DER YIDIshER LITERATUR, edited by SHMUEL ROZhANSKI (with valuable notes and comments in Yiddish):
Number 17: MENAKhEM-MENDL (MM'09), 1963;
Number 27: TEVYE DER MILKhIKER (TDM), 1966.
- 4) The microfiche (MF) copies from "Yiddish Classics on Microfiche," Vol. 1, ed. Chone Shmeruk, New York: Clearwater Publishing Co., 1980. These are copies of rare publications, many of which appeared during Sholem Aleichem's lifetime, and include:

DI YUDISHFOLKS-BIBLYOTEK (DYF), contributing editor, ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, Kiev, Vol. 1, 1888; Vol. 2, 1889.

KOL MEVASER TSU DER YUDISHFOLKS-BIBLYOTEK (KMYF), by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, Odessa, 1892.

ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM'S ALE VERK (AV'03-Warsaw), Vol. 1-4, Warsaw, 1903.

Some copies of BIKhER FAR ALE (BFA), Warsaw, 1905-?

YUBILEUM OYSGABE (AVYO), Vol.1-16 (no Vol. 15), Warsaw, 1909-1915. First 3 vol. called: DI NAYESTE VERK FUN ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM. Remaining volumes are called: ALE VERK FUN ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM.

FARGESENE BLETLER (FB), ed. MITLMAN & NADEL, Kiev, 1939.

ALE VERK FUN ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM (AV'48-Moscow), Vol. 1-3 (with comments, explanations, and additional text that is absent from more familiar versions of some pieces), ed. OYSLENDER and FRUMKIN, Moscow, 1948.

SOVETISH HEYMLAND (SH), a Yiddish Journal of Soviet Russian origin.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION PROVIDED:

THE ENGLISH TITLES INDEX PROVIDES:

- 1) the Yiddish title;
- 2) date of writing (or publication) of the Yiddish original;
- 3) initials of translator(s); and
- 4) location (in abbreviated form) of the English version.

THE YIDDISH TITLES INDEXES (ALPHABETICAL & CHRONOLOGICAL) PROVIDE:

- 1) references to locations of the Yiddish works or to photocopies on microfiche of the Yiddish works, along with the source from which the copy was taken;
- 2) title and location of English translations;
- 3) date of writing (or publication).

DATING THE WORKS OF SHOLEM ALEICHEM:

Dates of Yiddish versions are those ascribed by I.D. Berkowitz in the FOLKSFOND OYSGABE (AV-F) and in the 1942 FORVERTS OYSGABE (AV'42) or in DOS ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM BUKh (DSAB), pp. 361-369. In some cases, dates have been checked against Khone Shmeruk's article on Sholem Aleichem in LEKSIKON FUN DER NAYER YIDISHER LITERATUR (LNYL), Vol. 8, and UNDZERE RISHOYNIM by I.D. Berkowitz, Tel Aviv: HAMENORAH, 1966. In the chronological list, a work dated over a span of two or more years is listed within the earliest year. The first date may mark the first of several versions. He revised frequently, often extensively.

Of special interest is a note by Berkowitz in DER TOG, New York (Nov. 4, 1923, page 10), which assigns writing of A BOYDEM to 1896, rather than 1899, as given in other sources. This information came too late for the FOLKSFOND OYSGABE. However, it was not even included in later publications such as DOS ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM BUKh (1926, 1958), nor in UNDZERE RISHOYNIM (1966).

DUPLICATE TITLES:

In at least one case, a revision is so thorough that the new version bears only marginal resemblance to the first. The two are then listed as separate pieces with the same title, e.g. LEGBOYMER, 1887 and LEGBOYMER, 1901. LONDON (1892) and LONDON (1909) are similar, but the revision is extensive enough to justify separate entries. Then there are other pairs of works with the same title (or virtually the same) of different years that bear no essential similarity in content. They are 1) ARBE KOYES (1888) and ARBE KOYES (1900); 2) DOS GROYSE GEVINS (1903) and DOS GROYSE GEVINS (1915); 3) KONKURENTN (1903) and KONKURENTN (1909); 4) OYLEM HABE (1904) and OYLEM-HABE (1915); 5) ShALEKhMONES (1908) and ShALEKh-MONES (1916). Berkowitz notes (DSAB 364) that Sholem Aleichem wrote AFIKOYMEM in 1902 which was eventually retitled BASHERT AN UMGLIK, but AFIKOYMEM of 1914 is entirely different. TEVYE DER MILKhIKER is the original title of the first Tevyeh story (1894). The 1915 stage adaptation of the Tevyeh stories, significantly altered, is also entitled TEVYE DER MILKhIKER.

TRANSCRIPTION STYLE:

The style employed for transcription or romanization of Yiddish follows recommendations by Uriel Weinreich in College Yiddish, YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, New York, 1974, 5th edition, and in his Modern English-Yiddish Yiddish-English Dictionary, McGraw-Hill, New York, 1968. That is, upper case letters are used. Lower case letters occur only in certain combinations. This allows distinction between those occasions when S and H are together but sounded independently (e.g., OYSHERN: to hear out), and when they form the sound of sh in the English word, shine (e.g., MISHN: to mix). Further, the Yiddish transcriptions are thus more immediately distinguishable from the English. E.g., ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM is his Yiddish name. In English, the name is Sholem Aleichem.

SUGGESTIONS FOR USE: STARTING WITH AN ENGLISH TITLE.

For a searcher who knows only the English title, Advice, the English Titles Index provides the translator, the location of the English translation, the Yiddish title and date. Other information can be then be tracked. For example:

Advice (bi:- TBT 132).
EYTSE, AN (1904).

That is, the translator (bi) is Bernard Isaacs (see Key to Translators, p. 8). This English version (one of three) is in TBT. TBT 132 is the abbreviation for the book, The Bewitched Tailor, page 132 (see ABBREVIATIONS: ENGLISH SOURCES, p. 4). The Yiddish original is entitled AN EYTSE and was written in 1904. The list of Yiddish titles provides additional information. That is, the romanized Yiddish titles are alphabetized, and a search will locate the Yiddish sources and any other translations. For example:

EYTSE, AN (1904):-
AV'42 BAND 3, DALED: 73-91.
AV-F XXI: 73-91, 1921.
MF S 2, Cd 40-41, pp. 85-99 [AVYO 13: 85-99, 1913].
MF S 43 [BFA, Warsaw, 1905, No. 11].
SAOV 215-235.
E: A Consultation (msp:- SAP 113);
E: Advice (bi:- TBT 132);
E: A Bit of Advice (cl:- SLST 131).

That is, AN EYTSE is available in five Yiddish sources. The abbreviations are defined in ABBREVIATIONS: YIDDISH SOURCES (p. 6). As explained above, Key to Translators (p.8), and ABBREVIATIONS: ENGLISH SOURCES (below) will identify the translators, and show where each of the three translations may be found. The chronological list of Yiddish titles gives the same information, and shows what other works Sholem Aleichem wrote in that year, and in that era.

These microfiche cards are copies of the Yiddish works of Sholem Aleichem arranged in sets labeled S 1 to S 56. Some sets contain only one card. In sets with more than one card, the set number is followed by the card number(s) and page number(s). The source of that copy is then given in brackets.

For example:

GETsL [Originally, A MAYSE MIT NIS] (1904).

MF S 2, Cd 15-16, pp. 93-103 [AVYO 6: 93-103, 1913].

This locates GETsL in Microfiche set 2, spanning cards 15 and 16, on pages 93 to 103; and it is a copy of that work as it appeared in ALE VERK, YUBILEUM OYSGABE, Vol. 6, pages 93 to 103, published in 1913.

MM'09 - MENAKhEM-MENDL by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, [the "canonized" MENAKhEM-MENDL works revised by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM in 1909, but published in their first form from 1892 to 1903] AND STUDIES IN YIDDISH LITERATURE. Ed. ShMUEL ROZhANSKI, Buenos Aires: Ateneo Literario en el IWO [YIVO], 1963. This contains many useful notes and comments in Yiddish.

MM'13: MENAKHEM-MENDL [the 1913 series of letters] by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, Tel-Aviv: I.L. Peretz Publishing House, 1976.

OVBYL: OYF VOS BADARFN YIDN A LAND? by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, Tel-Aviv: I.L. Publishing House, 1978.

SAOV: ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM: OYSGEVEYLTE VERK, Moscow: MELUKhE FARLAG FUN KINSTLERISHER LITERATUR, 1959. This contains many useful notes and comments in Yiddish.

SH: SOVETISH HEYMLAND, Yiddish Journal Published in the Soviet Union.

TDM: TEVYE DER MILKhIKER by ShOLEM-ALEYKhEM, AND STUDIES IN YIDDISH LITERATURE. Ed. SHMUEL ROZhANSKI, Buenos Aires: Ateneo Literario en el IWO [YIVO], 1966. These editions contain many useful notes and comments in Yiddish.
